GARDENING WORKSHOP & STORY TIME

Discover the joys of springtime planting & gardening, listen to some really cool stories, and get your hands in some sweet soil to welcome back spring!

Rutgers Cooperative Extension Home Horticultural Team Master Gardeners and librarian/gardener Ms. Adaria will offer a special story time about gardening, spring, and the magic of planting with a potting craft to follow the stories. Soil, seeds, pots, and spray bottles will be provided!

Open to kids ages 3 to 12 yrs Saturday, March 22, at 11 am-12:30 pm
